

Chianti

Name: Chanti

Age: 5 years

Gender: female, spayed

Kids: Good with Children

Other dogs? Good with other dogs. She will guard her food from other dogs (NOT PEOPLE)

Cats?: Good with kitties

Livestock?: Good with livestock, was raised on a ranch

Location: CA

How did this dog end up with ABCR?

Chanti had a rough start in her life. She and her littermate were sold to a ranch, and on Chanti's very first heat cycle she was bred to her brother (we assume accidentally) She was rehomed from that situation, where she was then surrendered to ABCR when her owner found herself going through some major life changes.

Who will be a good family for this dog?

Chanti will make a great family dog! She is not as active as some Beaucerons, but would still make a great jogging/hiking partner. She is housebroken and has great manners.

What does this dog's foster home say?

She does need to be fed separately from the pack, she will guard food. But doesn't guard toys. She has no problems with humans taking toys, treats, or food, just other dogs. Other than that Chanti is a GREAT dog. She is sweet and goofy, always wants to be with you.

Chianti4

Chianti3

Chianti