

Tessa

Tessa was rescued from a shelter in Virginia. This escape artist would run loose with her friend until Animal Control picked them up. After one too many adventures, she ended up in the care of ABCR. We got her down to a foster in Georgia where she quickly flourished. Her forever home came soon afterwards. Now she enjoys her boxer packmate and going to work with her new owner.

