

Stache

Name: Stache

Age: 14 weeks

Gender: Male

Location: Idaho

Cats: yes

Dogs: Yes

Kids: Stache is VERY mouthy, but with appropriate supervision he has been excellent with his foster mom's kiddo.

Livestock: Has had some exposure at his foster mom's house. No issues.

Housebroken: Yes, as housebroken as a 3 month old baby can be!

Crate trained: Yes, very good in a crate

Training: Knows some very basic commands, but is eager to learn and food motivated!

Reason for surrender: Owner surrender. His first family loved him very much, but realized they were overwhelmed. They had no experience with Beaucerons and mistook his excessive mouthiness as aggression. Stache has been with a Beauceron experienced foster home for a week and they have seen no signs of aggression. However, Stache can be a bossy little pup who will need someone to help him learn his place in the family and continue his training.

What does Stache's foster have to say? Stache is a really fun puppy! He is a typical, energetic Beauceron baby. He came to work with me at the grooming shop and wasn't afraid of the sounds and was polite with the other dogs. I brought him in for a vet visit and he was a perfect patient for my veterinarian. He rides well in the car and is a dream in the crate. This is going to be an awesome dog for someone.

Who will be Stache's ideal new family? Someone with Beauceron or other high energy working/herding dog experience. This little man is going to need a JOB. We would love to see him go somewhere that is interested in dog sports. At the very least he will need an active pet home.
